What will I know about following God as a Jewish person?
Jewish Beliefs About God	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jews use many names for God including Creator, Almighty, Our Father. Jews treat the name of God with the greatest of respect. Some Jews do not write the name of God out fully. Instead they put 'G-d' as a mark of respect. The Shema is a prayer in which there can be found key Jewish beliefs about God. The words are kept in important places, e.g. inside a tefillin.
The Torah	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Torah is a sacred text for Jews and is treated with great care and respect. Many Jews believe the words in the Torah are the word of God; that Moses received the Torah from God when he was on Mount Sinai. It contains a range of text types including poems, commandments and stories. The five books of the Torah and the first five books of the Christian Old Testament are the same, so Jews and Christians share many stories.
Jewish Laws	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Commandments in the Torah affect how a Jewish person lives their life. The Torah includes many laws about which foods may or may not be eaten. Food that Jewish people eat is entitled 'kosher', meaning 'clean' or fit for purpose. There are also laws around Shabbat which are followed by Jewish people. Not all Jewish people will follow Jewish laws in the same way. Orthodox Jews will keep kosher food laws strictly but Progressive Jews might not.
The Synagogue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A synagogue is a place of worship for Jews and is central to community life. The making of images is forbidden, so synagogues are unlikely to feature pictures or statues of important Jewish figures. The rabbi (Jewish leader and teacher) leads services. The Torah scroll is stored in an ark and kept covered when not in use.
	Synagogue		Torah scroll		Star of David

These are both Jewish families. Look at the diversity within the Jewish community. What are the similarities and differences?
